

WATER TREATMENT

AQUASOTNER

Objective

Two functions in one system (softening, filtering and force-feeding) to be installed before your pump.

This system ensures:

- A longer service-life of high-pressure nozzles and seals, which cuts running costs
- A steady feeding pressure which ensures a good running of the high-pressure pump
- The maintenance of the filtering process without stopping production, which improves the productivity of your installation

