

OUR COMPETENCES

A broad range of high-synergy services to provide you with a comprehensive service

Year after year, we have been developing a horizontal line of expertise and organization in order to be able to meet your requirements, from the feasibility study to the turnkey delivery of your installation. To help you make the most of it, we provide a full range of services: maintenance, training, continuous improvement, etc.

Pluridisciplinarity at your service

- A sales-team to support you from preliminary design to order
- A project-team to follow you all along each project stage
- A 3D CAD/CAM-equipped engineering and design department (preliminary design, study, installation design)
- Specialized technicians : fitters, cablemen, starting-up specialists will follow up the progress of your installation up to full commissioning
- A receptive, reactive and serviceable customer service technicians ready to help and relieve your teams on a daily basis
- Trainers to ensure your teams' performances
- Planners to provide your parts with guaranteed quality and deadlines
- A back office ensuring information coordination and transmissions as well as the administrative follow-up for your projects

A quality commitment to bring you satisfaction and economic performance

With a 2000-Version ISO 9001-Quality certification granted by par Bureau Veritas, we provide rigorous and well thought-out reasoning and organization at the client's service.

In the near future, we will further our efforts working towards our ISO 14001 (2007) and EN 9100 (2008) certifications.

A broadened expertise around ultra-high pressure to ensure a comprehensive integration of our technologies into your processes

In order to optimize the integration of high-pressure and to enhance the efficiency of your process, we specialize in automation, industrial computing and robotics.

A continuous commitment to innovation in order to provide you with constantly optimized solutions

We are unceasingly searching for technological innovations to provide you with more and more innovative solutions.

A partnership culture to capitalize a shared know-how with you

We guarantee competitive prices thanks to the various partnerships developed and we ally our skills to provide quality products.

Mobility and adaptability to your international projects

We are present in Europe, but also in India, Turkey and the United States. Once your installation is delivered and started up on your premises, we endeavour to guarantee your self reliance (translated documents, operational training...)and an optimum remote service (on-line services, a modem connected to the strategic parts of the machine...).