

EFFLUENTS TREATMENT

Objective

The system automatically disposes of, separates and stores the sludge from the abrasive water jet.

This system ensures:

- An improved productivity as the sludge is disposed of while the installation is producing
- An automatic management of levels
- A maximum decantation to facilitate the disposal of waste
- A used-abrasive container easy to handle and disposed of at the same time as the abrasive

